Model 831/5
Armchair with leather cover and bright chromium-plated frame

A group of Cubis units with leather-covered armchairs, a spacious settee and a small, square table. The elegant, understated appearance is underlined by the soft lustre finish of the clear anodized frame profiles.

Cubis. Pure serenity.

Cubis marks the creation of a seating range that blends with any interior design without dominating it. The simple forms with closed side sections define a solid structure that conveys a feeling of well-being in open-plan interiors too. The clear geometry creates a serene appearance, irrespective of the configuration selected.

The cube-shaped structures are supported by legs in elliptical aluminium profile with a distinctive, bevelled detail at the top. Firm seat upholstery ensures a high degree of comfort, and a generous seat height facilitates standing up. A host of frame finishes and upholstery options provide almost unlimited scope for individual creations.

Cubis always looks good – in a foyer, a reception area or a lobby, or as office seating for a small, informal group.

The distinctive, oval frame profiles are either coated, clear anodized or bright chromium-plated. The upholstery material for the armchairs and settees may be selected from the entire collection of Wilkhahn fabrics and leather. Last but not least, the range is completed by small side tables finished in laminate or veneer providing a host of different options for coordinating furniture elements with an interior design theme.
