Burkhard Dämmer

Poppy, curvy plasticity

The poppy hanging lamp (yes, Poppy, like the flower!), together with Pod, are the most natural expression to date signed by German designer Burkhard Dämmer, in contrast to his more formal trend more concise and synthetic.

Both creations could be placed inside a combined universe, both geometrical and natural, where the arranged repetition of the form generates a curvy plasticity reinforced by light that subtly radiates through the gaps in its wood slats. The larger models house a poppy shaped inner shade, and an outer shade, a second skin which gives it its final, domed shape.

Poppy, plasticidad sinuosa

La lámpara de suspensión Poppy (amapola en inglés), así como la Pod, son la expresión más natural que nos ofrece hasta el momento el diseñador alemán Burkhard Dämmer, en contraste con una tendencia formal concisa y sintética.

Podríamos incluirlas dentro de un enclave geométrico-natural donde la repetición ordenada de las formas genera una plasticidad sinuosa que se refuerza cuando la luz atraviesa sutilmente sus lamas de madera y se escapa entre sus ranuras. Su interior es en realidad una forma de lámpara Pod y su exterior, una doble piel que le otorga su silueta final, abombada.
